I-BUILD

 1.5 - 2.5 HOURS

 INDOOR - OUTDOOR

 4 - UNLIMITED

 COMPETITIVE - COLLABORATIVE

A clear message needs to pass through the whole communication chain, so that what is meant to be built will be actually accomplished. Therefore, get ready to test your communication skills, both verbal and non-verbal, with a clear focus on the goal that you must achieve. However, you will not be alone In this highly engaging activity: your team members will do their best to demonstrate an effective interdepartmental communication and collaboration. Every single participant plays a vital role for the success of their team. Each one of you will have a specific role in the communication chain: choose the strategy, build the model, and achieve your goal in the limited time!

LEARNING OUTCOMES

I-Build is a unifying experience with strong outcomes focusing on the importance of language, feedback and creating a step-by-step project strategy. The strict rules are designed specifically to emphasize the main principles of accurately conveying information. I-Build is a great way of enhancing internal communication skills between different company teams or departments, as well as customer communication. The I-Build activity is followed by a debrief session, where participants are encouraged to share their experiences and outline conclusions.

both how we speak and our body language.*

*Super fun and engaging,
it made us more mindful of the way
